—Ayn Rand Lexicon

The way to understand the practice or to alter it is to change the conception that has produced it. Yes, he says, that does seem to be what he means. This principle that feeling can be induced, removed, or modified, through the intellectual reconstruction of its object, provides the main channel for the influence of thought on feeling.

8 Bible verses about Reasoning

We can see on reflection that they are neither the one nor the other, that to the man who lives in his understanding, they are beneath notice. When it is pointed out that the evil in the world is hardly consistent with that conclusion, the reply is made that if we saw this evil in perspective it would not be evil at all.

Chapter II. Stoicism and the Supremacy of Reason

Obstructions have been raised by men who thought the little they knew of the works and ways of the Creator was all that there was to be known. It will therefore be genuinely indifferent to him whether his food is appetizing or his clothes in style, even whether his house burns down or his friends desert him, whether he is a slave like Epictetus, or lord of the civilized world like Marcus Aurelius. For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? The idea is that when one dies he goes to the same place his predecessors went; namely, the dust Gen.

Chapter II. Stoicism and the Supremacy of Reason

The ancient manuscripts of which we had transcriptions or facsimiles available to us are Codex Sinaiticus and the fragments of The Sahidic Coptic Version of 4 Maccabees published by Ivan Miroshnikov. Yet, in the sufferings for godliness we have not been defeated.

Questioning the Supremacy of Reason

Or will You pursue the dry chaff? We can see on reflection that we feel these things because our reason has been invaded from below. For that reason alone nothing physical which sense-experience sets before our eyes ought to be called in question much less condemned.
