The Hidden Persuaders by Vance Packard

But it is also interesting to consider, as a peripheral issue, just how far corporations can go in undertaking social engineering without alienating consumers. It has recently been reissued. Very minimal writing or notations in margins not affecting the text.

Hidden Persuaders

This is the book that brought that to our attention, and it's still a great read.

Spine creases, wear to binding and pages from reading. More women now do the same work as men do. Spine creases, wear to binding and pages from reading.

The Hidden Persuaders

The question with much of the book, and much of psychology, is how much can be generalised from particular situations.
