THE PANAMA PAPERS

RA treatment increased the expression of gas3 and caused gas2 to be transiently overexpressed in amino-acid-deficient medium

THE PANAMA PAPERS

Endometrioid carcinoma EC , serous carcinoma SC , and carcinosarcoma showed significantly elevated stromal p16 expression levels compared with benign and precancerous lesions. This study describes the expression phenotype of napsin A in endometrial neoplasms, it investigates the relationship between this expression profile and the clinicopathologic parameters, and assess its utilization as an independent predictive marker.

Devil and Angel (2015)

Upon blending with the donor PTB7-Th, AOIC-based organic photovoltaic cells show an efficiency of 13.
