Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict

CONCLUSION The defeat of Japan in World War II resulted in its withdrawal from China, including Taiwan, from Korea, and from the huge territories it had occupied in Southeast Asia stretching from Vietnam to the Indonesian Archipelago. This includes a high rate of illiteracy since many of the previous systems of ethnic language teaching — for example Buddhist monasteries and private classes in Shan State — were either banned or disrupted by successive Bamar-majority governments after independence. Today, the majority of Chinese and Koreans are considered ethnic Han, making them the largest ethnic group in the world.
