Decade of Action

The United Nations Environment Assembly was a green meeting, carbon neutral as well as both plastic- and paper-free. In 2019, Member States reaffirmed their shared commitment to the 2030 Agenda, with leaders calling for a decade of action to deliver the Sustainable Development Goals by.

59th Session of the Commission for Social Development

In due course, this crisis will call for a stronger line of enquiry into environment and health, as the connection between the health of people and the health of our planet is so fundamental, yet so often ignored.

Remarks by Under

Air pollution is a life-and-death issue for too many people, and it is also the largest driver of climate change.

Remarks by Under

Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on human rights education, submitted in accordance with the request contained in General Assembly of 20 December 1993; 2.

United to Reform

I look forward to continuing these conversations with colleagues and Member States in the months to come. The Programme was instrumental in helping developing countries identify and address national priorities for chemicals management, according to SAICM guidelines.

Decade of Action

As an initial activity for the preparatory process, UN-Water held in November 2019 a side event to provide an opportunity for stakeholders, specially UN Member States, to reflect on how to plan for the Conference and the preparatory process.

UNSDG

In 2020, WTA IPG developed a framework of major challenges and actions around each Decade outcomes and will organize a series of virtual workshops to support the elaboration of a regional action plan. In this same sector and period, China could save some 350 million tonnes and India some 270 million tonnes. Without carbon neutrality, countries will be facing more and more natural disasters, threats to public health and a dramatic loss in biodiversity.

2020 Report of the Secretary

On that occasion, nine additional governments joined BreatheLife, a joint initiative of the UNEP-hosted Climate and Clean Air Coalition with WHO and the World Bank. At the ICPD in Cairo, 179 countries adopted a forward-looking, 20-year Programme of Action that continues to serve as a comprehensive guide to people-centred development progress. In 1945, world leaders gathered in San Francisco to sign the Charter of the United Nations, which gave birth to an organization that represented new hope for a world emerging from the horrors of the Second World War.
