Everything Change Up Now: A View of the South Carolina Sea Islands

The critical habitats are closed during nesting season because birds matter so much here. South Carolina: The University of South Carolina Press. Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press.

Geechee and Gullah Culture

There is no loud laughter on the streets; there are no melodious songs wafted back from the water. He stood stock-still, his bare feet placed close together.

South Carolina Islands

Due south of Savannah and tucked among Georgia's 14 barrier islands was one heiress's vision of a wild cultural utopia: Ossabaw Island. And the effects of them are felt hundreds of miles in all directions, even when they fail to break across the coast-line barriers; for the inland winds that are roguishly playing rock-a-bye baby in the tree-tops are keen for a frolic, and no sooner do they feel that preparations for one are going forward in the tropics than they hurry to join and feed the monstrous riot of the elements. In their haste they buried many where the tide could uncover them, and the exposure of these added to the epidemic.
