Partition of India

The Muslim leadership, such as it was, was depleted after the exodus to Pakistan and traumatised not only after partition but, shortly thereafter, by the armed invasion of Hyderabad followed by the massacre of Muslims in the State. Gupta adds that for the next six decades, Muslims trusted the Congress party and members of the Nehru-Gandhi dynasty.

How the Partition of India happened

They combined with other social groups to vote for the party best placed to defeat the B.

In his reign, it is likely that conversions to Islam took place as a means of seeking greater social mobility and improved social standing.

What the Owaisi phenomenon says about Indian Muslims & future of 'secular' parties

Discrimination has recently reared its head even in sectors where it was not particularly noticeable earlier.

The Hindu

The peak of the was marked under the and reign of emperor , , upon the compilation and establishment of the. They were heard shouting slogans as 'Larke Lenge Pakistan' We shall win Pakistan by force. During the , several such ghettos became easy targets for the rioting mobs, as they enabled the profiling of residential colonies.

Partition of India

This argument is deeply flawed, to say the least. Muslim invaders were not all simply raiders.
