Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep Poem by Mary Elizabeth Frye

Extensive research has generally, if not fully, confirmed Mary to be the author. And for that I admit, I am not poetry.

I Am Not Yours

Oh plunge me deep in love—put out My senses, leave me deaf and blind, Swept by the tempest of your love, A taper in a rushing wind. I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner.

Still not for sharing your own amateur poetry.

Poems by Fanny Crosby

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
