In my opinion, this was a Enid Blyton-style book which I thought was a good, interesting story with a lovely touch of mystery. The ghosts are always explained and the bad guys always caught. This section is really an overview of the series.

Smugglers' Cove

Cover art by Al Andersen. The letter tells of an inheritance waiting for him. From then on it is a race to save themselves and stop further crime.

Accessories such as CD, codes, toys, may not be included. Because the comedy is so poorly written that it really takes away from the drama.

The Mystery of Smugglers Cove by Paul Moxham

Slip and the boys head out there to take a look not knowing that he's the wrong Terrance Mahoney and that there are some smuggler's working in the house. Spine may show signs of wear. .
