Indispensable to industry professionals and collectors, it is also accessible to beginners and a useful resource for eBay users.

Miller's Antiques Encyclopedia by Judith Miller

This is a good general reference book dealing with the most important categories of what are generally considered 'antiques' and almost only those categories, unfortunately. First published in 1998, Miller's Antiques Encyclopedia has gone to sell more than 130,000 copies and remains an invaluable aid to collecting. This new edition reflects changes in the antiques market since 2008.
