Space Force: A Historical Perspective

Almost from the moment the Air Force won the ultimate bureaucratic victory of service independence, it began a nearly five-decade fight to rid itself of a platform, and attendant mission, which runs counter to its own interests. In addition, mitogenic factor MF has been demonstrated in many different M types of GAS ,.

Thin Air, Thick Vessels: Historical and Current Perspectives on Hypoxic Pulmonary Hypertension

Neurosurgery 51 : 57 — 62 , 2002 Shimon I , Ram Z , Cohen ZR , Hadani M : Transsphenoidal surgery for Cushing's disease: endocrinological follow-up monitoring of 82 patients.

The Psychology of Racism

Based on his experience with depressed and self-destructive patients, and pondering the carnage of , Freud became dissatisfied with considering only oral and sexual motivations for behavior. Early Links Between Acute Hypoxia and Pulmonary Hypertension Despite elevated PAP being first associated with ventilatory failure in 1852 , a causal relationship between hypoxia and PH only became established in 1946 when von Euler and colleagues demonstrated increased mPAP on exposing cats to both hypoxia and hypercapnia ; in 1947, Dresdale reported similar findings in humans. The more the material offered by a patient resisted interpretation, the more it counted in favour of the theory.

Defense Mechanisms in the Clinic and in the Laboratory: An Attempt at Bridging the Gap

When the patient reclines on a couch with the analyst out of view, the patient tends to remember more experiences, more resistance and transference, and is able to reorganize thoughts after the development of insight — through the interpretive work of the analyst. J Clin Invest 36 :

1701 — 1707 , 1957 Bethune JE , Nelson DH , Thorn GW : Plasma adrenocorticotrophic hormone in Addison's disease and its modification by the administration of adrenal steroids. These could also be seen as different stages, moving towards more extreme versions of racism.
