Gilt

Government guaranteed securities are those securities the income and capital of which are guaranteed by the Government.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES

No advance should be allowed against certificates in the name of a minor whether in his name or through his guardian or jointly with a guardian. Bearer Bonds are taken as cover by way of pledge and mere possession will give a bearer all rights of a pledge but it is usual to take a memorandum of deposit specifying the terms of their lodgment and usually giving a power of sale on default. There are their forms of Government securities.
