Works Progress Administration

A dedicated member of Rotary International, Fred was a charter member of the Carrizozo club and a regular visitor at the Parral Rotary club. In somewhat the same way, when we look under the wonderfully slick, expertly tooled surface of O'Hara's novels, we find it. Mushrooms were a passion, and he used to hunt for them with the composer John Cage.

Brown (Jean) papers Finding aid for the Jean Brown papers, 1916

Even though I noticed, at one point, across the carriageway heading in the opposite direction, that a vehicle had been stopped by what looked like an unmarked police car, there were no signs of patrol cars on our side and, on the very smooth, flat and true road our KIA Hybrid hire-car eased its way past the slower traffic.

Selected Works

Then, after studying philosophy at the University of Paris and Sanskrit and Pali at Harvard, he traveled through Germany, settled in England, and resumed his studies at Oxford. He and his wife, Barbara, then moved to Safford.

As a result of this prestigious award, he was offered a visiting artist position at the University of Minnesota, which began his teaching career. Some locals feel that the new agents have not made sufficient effort to ingratiate themselves with the community and Border Patrol agents have been known to destroy gates and cattle guards on ranches, although they are legally allowed to patrol private ranch land within 25 miles of the river. Stationed in England, he flew 26 missions as a bombardier over Germany in World War II, and was awarded the Bronze Star with two Oak Leaf Clusters.
