Symphony with sound harmonies with compositions of pure sound alone — MUSIC Synchrony with color harmonies of visual compositions of pure color alone — PAINTING Like many other artists in Paris, they eagerly wrote their manifesto, declaring a new approach to painting — the Synchronous Style — nonobjective art that was more relevant and more lasting than a mere photographic copy of an object, person, or any view of nature. See Smith, Utopia and Dissent, for an excellent discussion of the emergence of modernism in California. Experimental art had to start somewhere to get where it is and it started with one of the first schools for modernism, The Art Students' League borrowing the east coast school of the same name.
