According to FTI Consulting , 86 percent of IT decision makers say the biggest challenge to digitally transforming their business is too few software developers. Adaptive and predictive leveraged for success: More and more, project and program managers are using agile approaches for successful outcomes, and PMI is there to support these efforts on multiple fronts. The modern analytics landscape in which businesses compete requires them to look beyond the traditional data sources.

Data will be the foundation upon which we can rebuild this resilience—but to ensure data insights are utilized, public and private bodies must be willing to evolve.

Ventilators are in perilously short supply given the COVID crisis. The pandemic is transforming our lives, reshaping industries and enabling a new wave of threats that none of us would have thought possible a year ago.
