Ibn al

He did not depend upon opinion ra'i, would overcome others with the truth and would not be harsh with anyone with respect to it.

Short Biography of Ibn al Qayyim al Jawziyya

Among the renowned Muslim scholars who studied under him, we mention Ibn 'Abd al-Hadi and Ibn Rajab and others who oft-frequented his circles, and sought his company, such as Imam Ibn Kathir. Many of his associates would censure him at times but he would never return and leave alone this action of his, may Allah have mercy upon him.

Ibn al

Ibn Al-Qayyim lived in a time in which there was strife and internal confusion and chaos, as well as an external threat which was menacing the Islamic state.

Ibn Qayyim Al

He also wrote much poetry.

Ibn Qayyim Al

He would pray and recite the Qur'an much and was of excellent character, and showed great affection and friendship. Then and only then did Ibn Al-Qayyim come out of prison to join the multitudes who followed the body of Ibn Taymiyyah to the burial.
