Rule 16. Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management

The Government also argues that the public policy against consolidating government antitrust enforcement suits with private suits is demonstrated by courts' refusal to permit private parties to intervene in government antitrust suits. While Defendants participated in the appeal to the Federal Circuit as amicus curiae, they did not need the transcript of the appellate oral argument for an appeal of the appellate ruling, which did not occur. Abbott is the prevailing party in this matter and Plaintiffs do not contend otherwise.

Rule 16. Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management

Changes in language therefore have been kept to a minimum to avoid confusion.

Mandatory pre

Even when proposed expert testimony might be admissible under the standards of Rules 403 and 702 of the evidence rules, the court may preclude or limit such testimony if the cost to the litigants—which may include the cost to adversaries of securing testimony on the same subjects by other experts—would be unduly expensive given the needs of the case and the other evidence available at trial.

Logical candidates for this treatment include social security disability matters, habeas corpus petitions, forfeitures, and reviews of certain administrative actions. Conversely, general copying costs are not recoverable and neither are the costs of copies obtained merely for the convenience of counsel.
