3 Ways to Make Your School a Better Place

Funding from the state has been relatively stagnant since 2009. My circadian rhythms necessitate a different start and stop time. In the past 40 years, participation in sports has flourished both within and outside of schools.

Emergency Preparedness in School

School environments encourage more physical activity, both before and after school, if they include well-designed playgrounds; open spaces; and facilities and equipment that are available, accessible, and inviting to children.

School and Community Prevention and Intervention

One of the most powerful and effective actions any school or community can do is teach young people and adults to be bystanders who take positive action to stop and prevent bullying. High school-aged kids can also create their own hunts for younger siblings.

School and Community Prevention and Intervention

American Journal of Public Health, 100 9 , 1701—1707. Physically active academic lessons in elementary children. Sport is one of the four human activities, along with play, games, and work.

360 After school program activities ideas

And research shows that kids attending schools with a strong community are more likely to be academically motivated. Therefore we need creative people that can do something else and think differently.
