Andrew Scheer, right, is congratulated by Maxime Bernier after being elected leader of the federal Conservative party in Toronto on May 27, 2017. MacKay was also part of the CPC caucus that voted unanimously not to exempt Veterans Affairs from government-wide cuts, a move that would reduce their benefits, including their medical care. Macdonald himself often used the term catching loose fish, by which he meant bringing to his side members with no commitment to any particular party.

With Brown out, Governor Head invited Alexander Galt to form a government, but Galt declined. To the same end, historians have consistently underplayed the Tory contribution to the development of Canada. Thompson, and the generally disparaged R.

Rupert's Land

In the parliamentary system the prime minister and his cabinet are responsible to the majority in the elective legislature and to the electorate. They would do more for Canada, however, if they learned from their political blunders.
