Stage 3: The Bill Goes to Committee

Nobody thinks it is right when they learn how it is used, except prosecutors who do not want a proof provision in the law. Rather, they reflect judgments about what, as a practical matter, could be achieved based on the Agency's then-current procedures—including, of course, any built-in inefficiencies. It's not the one or two instances of discrimination, but it's the cumulative impact.

Asm. Ellen C. Jaffee

Where a petition has been duly filed, the employer and any individual or labor organizations representing a substantial number of employees involved may, with the approval of the regional director, enter into an agreement providing for the waiver of a hearing and for an election and further providing that post-election disputes will be resolved by the regional director.
