For decades, Kenya, Tanzania, and Uganda have provided security and refuge for hundreds of thousands of African refugees, including those from Burundi, Sudan, Rwanda, and South Africa, among others. The book focuses on cases from East Africa and the Horn.

Africa Humanitarian Action

In Zambia, AHA assumed responsibility for the Nyangweshi refugee camp.

Application of these protocols assuredly reduced the risk of infection among the insular populations of the nine South Pacific nations which have yet to confirm any cases of the virus. An estimated of six million of Sudanese citizens had been forced to leave their home as a direct or indirect result of fighting between government troops and allied militias and various insurgent groups. UNHCR's defense of refugees will ring hollow if it does not take on the tough task of excluding militarily active elements from its guardianship.

USAID/Bureau for Humanitarian Assistance: Development & Disaster Risk Reduction, West Africa

The ERC funds focus on specific priority areas that are determined annually and are likely to contribute to an overall improvement of humanitarian action. Charters, principles and roadmaps such as the Grand Bargain have been developed to guide the humanitarian system through this transition.
