THE CRAFT OF WRITING

Go through your manuscript several times, fine-tuning and polishing. When I have hundreds to read and assess, I reject obviously weak ones after reading only the first few paragraphs, which is what agents do all the time. I continue to study the craft.

The Craft of Writing

. I learned it from a neighbor kid, and he had very little clue on how to play well, which meant that neither did I.

Craft of Writing

Learning Your Craft by Getting Critiqued There is nothing harder than getting your writing critiqued. Is there such a thing as getting feedback too soon? Scott is referring to a classic article on this website, In that article, I explain the four basic phases of getting published.

Craft of Writing

There are only so many hours in the day. Because nothing I do in this life will have more influence than the books I write. You show the setting and other characters from their point of view, including their physical sensations, thoughts, feelings, and reactions.
