The Magic House, and Other Poems by Duncan Campbell Scott

We listened to it together, and I was entranced. You can glue little items to it such as gems and feathers, or tie a cord around it with feathers hanging.

The Haunted Closet: The Haunted House and Other Spooky Poems and Tales (1970, Scholastic Book Services)

The next five stories were similarly paced, slow and set over the course of a day or two in the character's lives, with very little action. The stories 'Matryona's House' and 'An Incident at Krechetovka Station' are particularly poignant. Sing we the sacred ancient hymns of the churches, Chanted first in old-world nooks of the desert, While in the wild, pellucid Nipigon reaches Hunted the savage. This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc.
