His Life — The Hemingway Home & Museum

Toronto and Chicago Hemingway returned home early in 1919 to a time of readjustment.

Hemingway: 5 places where he lived, drank, wrote

The biographical work is skilfully done, and with great generosity to all participants in the myth. He almost died in 1954 after plane crashes on successive days, with injuries leaving him in pain and ill health for much of the rest of his life. He was joined there by Dos Passos, and in November 1930, after bringing Dos Passos to the train station in , Hemingway broke his arm in a car accident.

Hemingway review

However, the book serves as a meticulous overview of an extraordinary life.
