FOREIGN POLICIES SINCE WORLD WAR 2 AND WAR CRIMES CONFLICTS

Bourgeois politicians involved in the unsuccessful attempt to establish effective governments prior to the October revolution of 1917. This is precisely what is binding for the KPD. Either we do it, or they will crush us.

A Summary and History of Communist

Engels considered it to be of great importance to emphasize the fact that no conquest or preservation of individual possession of the means of production on the part of the producers can possibly be a goal of the socialist program. In the Russian Revolution the link bridge became a proper coherent structure.

The revolutionary program of communist society eliminates all forms of ownership of land, the instruments of production and the products of labor

Theoretically, the owner could destroy the thing he owns; for example, irrigate his fields with salt water, sterilizing it, as the Romans did to Carthage after having burned it to the ground. In the communist economy we shall limit ourselves to what the bourgeois theoreticians call amortization, that is, replacement of fixed capital goods, in an opposite way, by revivifying them.

They require sustained attention, and the subcommittee will be looking for deeds rather than words. Clinging to the importance and necessity of private property only benefits the bourgeoisie in a capitalist society. Municipalization corresponds with the program of giving the monopoly over the land not to society, but only to the peasant class.

Program of the Communist Party of Germany (KPD)

The Union Arbeiterunion movement stems from the basic knowledge that the proletarian revolution, because it wants to see the basis of society overturned, is in the first place an economic revolution, and that capital's work force, whose power is anchored in the factories and works itself out in the first place economically, must advance from the factories as determined power. For parliament is an instrument of bourgeois politics, tied to the bourgeois method of making politics, and bourgeois too in its effect. He prefers to avoid fighting or retreats quickly.
