Recent legal developments seem to indicate that a tendency to lessen the importance of maintenance and comparable claims is becoming even more pronounced.

Juxtaposing Legal Systems and the Principles of European Family Law on Parental Responsibilities (27): Mair, Jane, Ã

Past traditions battle future trends—and vice versa. This edited volume tests the Principles in a range of legal systems - some untested Malta, Estonia, Romania, Scotland, and Turkey and some already considered by the CEFL Denmark and England - and, in so doing, assesses these legal systems in view of the Principles, and the Principles in view of these legal systems.
