Assyrian and Babylonian Letters Belonging to the K. Collections of the British Museum, Part I by Robert Francis Harper

Emendations, which were tolerably certain, have been introduced. We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality, but also providing value to every one of our readers.

Assyrian and Babylonian letters belonging to the K[ouyunjik] collections of the British museum (1893 edition)

I, therefore, hope that the series will be completed in ten Parts. The Parts containing the texts of the Letters will, I have every reason to hope, appear more frequently in the future than in the past.

Assyrian and Babylonian Letters Belonging to the Kouyunjik Collections of the British Museum, Vol. 8 by Robert Francis Harper

It must be distinctly understood that I have not attempted to give in this Part the complete series of Letters of each scribe. Four subsequent Parts will contain the text of the Tablets which still remain to be published.
