Bronson, 2017 March 3

So picture yourself with a couple of the three hundred and fifty opportunistic infections and unable to respond physiologically to the few drugs released by the foot-dragging deal-making FDA and having to maintain a junk habit; or even having to try and kick that habit without any clinical help while keeping yourself alive seven years to get a drug that you need immediately—thank you Ed Koch; thank you Stephen Joseph; thank you Frank Young; thank you AMA. Since the first prison-based syringe-exchange programme was set up at the Oberschongrin prison for men in Switzerland in 1992, studies in similar programmes have confirmed their effectiveness.

The AIDS Epidemic in San Francisco: The Medical Response, 1981

He was loony as Rasputin and funny beyond accounting. PWAs have sought relief in diverse and unlikely nutritional regimens, exercise programs, blood-heating techniques, faith healing, and assorted psychodynamic approaches. And sit in that chair because then, I would watch through the window, and I could watch the boys playing—I guess they were playing like, hockey, but in the summer with hockey sticks, on the street.

State HIV Laws

After all, three million Americans are transfused with blood each year, they said. Before January of 1998, my knowledge of AIDS was typical; I knew that HIV caused AIDS because that's what the textbooks said.
