Poem of the week: Skins by Patience Agbabi

How To Be Drawn, his new collection of poems, will be published in April. An epic story of romance and heroic deeds, the 6,500-line piece was created during the climax of development of the medieval Kingdom of Georgia.

The Paris Review

Both romantic relationships are paralleled and never mixed, as the true brotherhood between the two heroes prevent such incidents.

The Knight in the Panther's Skin

He knew Nekrasov and Pushkin by heart, read Goethe and Shakespeare in translation, and could recite Walt Whitman. The sun of my days is set, a moonless night is before me.
