Value and Ethics in Business

Then only we can be assured of a happy and harmonious human society.

Human Values and Professional Ethics notes unit 1

It may be regarded as a philosophy and methodology in which the direct experience and focused reflection of the individual helps to increase knowledge, develop skill and clarify values. The second assumption is based upon the superficial awareness that laws seem to be imposed upon us from without.

HUMAN VALUES AND PROFESSIONAL ETHICS: CHAPTER I: Understanding Value Education

I am able to make the other always happy<sup>3a</sup>. In other words, if the result of an action is good, then it is okay if the action itself is unethical.

It is becoming anti-ecological and anti-people, and threatening the human survival itself.

Values

Natural acceptance implies unconditional and total acceptance of the self, people and environment. Since interpretations of what is moral are influenced by cultural norms, the possibility exists that what is ethical to one group will not be considered so by someone living in a different culture.

On the other hand, when we identify our innateness, what we really want to be and establish a dialogue with it, it enables us to start living with this harmony, it starts expressing itself through our harmonious behaviour and work, and it naturally extends to our participation with the surroundings.

Personal Values' Influence on the Ethical Dimension of Decision Making

Through self exploration we get the value of ourselves. Steffani Cameron is a professional writer who has written for the Washington Post, Culture, Yahoo! Only if you are guided the right way. In particular, they affect us when we wish to do something.

Value and Ethics in Business

Personal values are what a person believes to be important. We need to verify these proposals for our self and examine our living in this light. Human values are the great virtues that help people to guide their character as they interact and socialize with the fellow human beings.
