Shito

They separate before entering, deciding to take separate routes, and agree to never search for each other again after parting so that neither one would feel guilty if something happened to the other. The two wait there in silence, until Shiki can no longer stand it and suddenly asks Mikiya where he was the whole time, and he replies saying that he was in holding a farewell party for an upperclassman, Lio Shirazumi, that was dropping out of school because he found something to do.

Kara no Kyoukai

Toko requests that she not assemble it within the office, as its age would cause all of the magical barriers to break.

Shiki confronts Fujino on the sealed off Broad Bridge, a newly constructed that connects the two harbors. Later in the night she tries to stab her eyes with her fingers but is stopped by Tōko, who speaks with Shiki about the 'Mystic Eyes of Death Perception'. Tōko then deduces that Fujino was never stabbed in the first place, but she was indeed feeling pain the moment she was about to be stabbed.

Shito

Fujino is shown dialing Keita's phone, but instead, Keita does not answer while he is cowering frightened.
