Smoot, Reed, 1862

I wired Carl Badger as follows: De- nounce any charge that I have made an agreement or deal of any kind with liquor interests as malicious and wicked false- hood. After becoming an apostle in 1900, Smoot received the approval of church president Joseph F.

Reed Smoot & America's Natural Resources, 1903

I have become quite hesitant to judge people and their character too quickly. Smoot had hardly hoped his mission would also galvanize his spiritual desire for a firm, unwavering faith in the divinity of the religious message he was sent to proclaim.

Reed Smoot

Outside of a trip to the Sandwich Islands Hawaii with his father in 1880, Smoot had not been exposed to the world outside of Utah except through books.

Reed Smoot letter to his wife Alpha May Smoot, September 19, 1927

The Smoot Trial, as it was often called, was as much a public trial of the Mormon church as it was of Smoot himself. Everett Cooley and director of University of Utah Press Richard Thurman stated that the only way was to be hired on with Merlo J. One senses from Merrill's writings that he was influenced in some way by the Progressive school.
