Portfolio of Hopi Kachinas by Boelter Homer H

She holds spruce and corn in each hand. This by no means inclusive of the over 200 different kachina beings in the Hopi culture, yet it will provide you with insight into the reasons and the simple and real purpose of the kachina in the Hopi and Pueblo culture. The two artists carved katsina dolls, then the company made molds from the carvings, and cast ceramics from the molds.

Hopi Kachinas

Devil's Claw is a plant growing at Hopi that can hold the clouds.
