America divided: never has the pursuit of happiness seemed so far off

To live virtuously is to pursue the good -- the naturally desirable -- through choices made in accordance with our circumstances and the nature of a rational animal, which, in turn, is to be happy. Fichte, arguably the first true progressive in the precise sense, objected to Kant's concern with saving human dignity and free will, regarding this as an illegitimate throwback to the old morality of self-interest which, on consistently Kantian terms, must be obliterated.

American Liberty and the "Pursuit of Happiness"

He also obliged us to be generous to the less fortunate. This side's function, from the point of view of the progressives who carefully cultivate it, is to reinforce the ethics of self-negation by entrenching the social rule of submission to the State, whereby anyone who resists his proper role as servant of the collective, i.

Pursuit Of Happiness: Under Constitutional America vs. under Marxism or Islam.

We humbly apologize to all religious conservative thinkers for the need to even say these things, but the Hard Left is what it always was, the New Leftist Liberals are what they are, and the Internet is what it is. Happiness and the Search The main problem, as Percy sees it, is the pursuit of happiness itself. Perhaps unsurprisingly, our survey, consisting of 1,959 participants from the pre-election study, showed supporters of Joe Biden judged the electoral process very favourably, while most Trump voters were highly critical.

The Pursuit of Happiness: What the Founders Meant—And Didn't

Yet the true history and philosophical meaning of the famous phrase are apparently unknown. Real charity comes from the heart and soul of a human.

Pursuit Of Happiness: Under Constitutional America vs. under Marxism or Islam.

The moral ground of their corruptive influence was the view that self-interest, meaning nothing less than the pursuit of happiness, is intrinsically immoral and slavish, while true freedom entails the submission of one's life to the interests of the collective, i. Today, the federal government does everything; the states and local governments are increasingly slaves of the federal government.
