REINVENTING AND REFORMATION JUVENILE JUSTICE

Diversion programs can be extraordinarily effective. The Kansans Can vision to lead the world in the success of each student continues to drive the work of the Kansas State Board and the state education agency. The legal doctrine of parens patriae —the right and responsibility of the state to substitute its own control over children for that of the natural parents when the latter appeared unable or unwilling to meet their responsibilities or when the child posed a problem for the community —originated in the English chancery courts to protect the crown's interests in feudal succession and established royal authority to administer the estates of orphaned minors with property.
