Industrial tribunals: a practical guide

Given the delays in the employment tribunal system, an order for interim relief can be very valuable for a dismissed employee. .

Andrew Allen QC advises on Interim Relief in the Employment Tribunal

This site is educational information based. Applications for interim relief have been rare and interim relief orders even rarer — but there may be an uptick in such applications in these unusual Covid-19 times as employees are encouraged to return to work — in particular given that whistleblowing unfair dismissal is one of the categories of claim for which interim relief is available.
