Nantucket had life-saving stations on the beaches of Coskata, Surfside, Madaket, Tuckernuck, and Muskeget.

West End

The West End location was established in 1961. The aerial photograph below indicates the locations of the various restaurants that were known over the years.

Some of the later restaurant offerings included The Dock, Yaeger's, The Bounty, The Pontchartrain Surf Club and others. The planners identified the ideal inlet to the canal as being a slip off of the City's western most end at Lake Pontchartrain, just at the point where New Orleans met Jefferson Parish. Eventually the US Life Saving Service and the US Revenue Cutter Service merged to become the US Coast Guard.

Stronger Than Yesterday! & Juliet Plans West End Return in May

A short time later, just after 8:00 pm. This new access span allowed widening of the canal to permit greater access to boat traffic, as well as permitting automobiles to drive into the area of West End Park. Because of the proximity to the Orleans and New Orleans Marinas, and the Southern Yacht Club, businesses along the New Basin Canal were geared primarily to boat and yacht sales and services.
