This indicates that Yusuke's desire wasn't for his mother to return to life, but rather for her work to be publicly recognized and his mentor to be the good person Yusuke had always wished he had been. After learning of the Tragedy of Hope's Peak Academy, the Madarai brothers seek revenge for the deceased members of the student council, but also feel very humiliated because they were not targeted during the incident and thus seemingly not considered one of the student council.

He is generally taken to be one of the , angels who fell separately from rebellion when they taught humanity forbidden knowledge out of lust for human women-Azazel is credited with teaching the techniques for blacksmithing weapons and the art of cosmetics, especially makeup and mascara. He assures Kawanabe that he will not give up trying to reach the top of the art world using only his talent. He expresses that because of his role as a mere bodyguard, rebuilding the student council would be impossible, and that he can only protect the student council's remaining dignity.
