As a result, they were handicapped from achieving their 'Destabilizing Kashmir project' in the absence of article 370, which acted as a catalyst till then. Security dilemmas stretching from threats to genuine attacks in Pakistan and India have ignominiously dented the trading partnership.

Short essay on Pakistan's Proxy War against India

With regards to Balochistan and Karachi situation, it is quite evident that US, RAW and National Directorate of Security { NDS Afghan Intelligence Agency } have close cooperation in creating unrest and insecurity through bomb blasts, suicidal missions, sectarianism and targeting killing in Balochistan, KPK and Karachi. This costs our Indian Army several lives and even more wounded but this is hardly mentioned in most of the news channels or newspapers. These agencies are funding BLA, BNA and MQM England to foment terrorism.

Pakistan's proxy war during COVID

Analysts like Joanna Slater highlight that today the militancy in Kashmir is in the late 1990s and early 2000s. The more India talks, in front of the world, about the Pakistani interference, the more denials come from Pakistan. Fourthly, establishing banking and financial channels and discounting the barter system is necessary to improve trade.

India Pakistan: Longread

Such groups are considered as strategic assets to be employed for launching terrorist attacks primarily against India and Afghanistan. Pakistan has militarily decimated the Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan TTP , the main terror outfit in the country, as well as other groups in the past decade. For decades, article 370 was an untouchable default status that was supposed to be guarded till eternity.
