Myth Of Lincoln, Secession, The War

Recent political histories of antebellum Mississippi and Louisiana suggest that this approach has much to contribute to our understanding of how national debates filtered down to state and local levels.

Myths About Slavery

Quite a few of the European writers altered their opinions and became Southern sympathizers after observing the actions of Lincoln and his regime in the first months of the war. Thousands more succumbed to starvation, dehydration, exposure, murder by guards, murder by fellow inmates, and suicide. Perhaps the most influential pro-South journal in England was All the Year Round, edited by Charles Dickens.

Is the European Union On The Edge Of A Civil War?

Lincoln's naval blockade was 95% effective at stopping trade goods; as a result, imports and exports to the South declined significantly.

Victory and Aftermath of American Civil War ~ American Civil War

Thomas Jefferson to John Holmes, April 22, 1820, Library of Congress: Thomas Jefferson,.
