If they do it, it's wrong, but there's really nothing else they can do. As of 2014, closed autocracies were about as prone to suffer terrorist attacks as electoral democracies, and were markedly more prone than either liberal democracies or polyarchies. The emergency state allows for the temporary deviation from higher order norms as described in the Constitution Manin, 2008, p.

Which Democratic candidates denounced Antifa? Some didn't know who they were.

That causal pathway is often asserted in political rhetoric about terrorism. Now we will wait for who will declare America undemocratic and dictatorship.

The Democratic Party is Now a Terrorist Organization

The results should shed light on whether democratic political systems actually contribute to the activities of terrorist groups. For a detailed discussion of the issue of definition see Alex P.

Democracy and terrorism

The way I see it is you are either part of our problem or you are part of our solution. All this weakness has occurred at a time when many countries, especially China, India and Russia, are growing much stronger.
