. They both pleaded not guilty to each of the charge. The new arrangement, in my judgement, transposes this generally because of the status and respect the Constitution gives to fundamental human rights.

Just Decided!

At the end of the trial, the trial court found the Appellant and the 1st accused guilty as charged, convicted and sentenced them. She therefore knows little about why and what happened to her husband when deported at Lilongwe International Airport. Having regard to the larger size of Dong and its more advanced chieftaincy institution, whether there was any basis for the appellants claim of the custom or tradition for the appointment of the chief of Dong as being the applicable tradition or custom for the appointment of the district head of Dong district.

Okeke v Minister of Home Affairs and another (Civil Cause No. 73 of 1997) ((Civil Cause No. 73 of 1997)) [2001] MWHC 36 (08 July 2001);

There is preference for the general approach against the limited approach. The rule of interpretation is what has been excluded was meant not to be included.
