Lenin: The National Question in Our Programme

First and foremost, it would go in the face of the decisions of the previous Congress, especially those on the Dutch resolution about the military strike. Marx, who belonged to the most radical left wing of the revolutionary democracy of the time, swung boldly from defensive to offensive tactics in this question as well: rather than postponing a clash with tsardom until such time as it should decide to intervene in Germany, he chose to challenge absolutism from the outset by carrying the torch of war and revolution into Russia itself.

Polish question

She is on your frontiers, and do not give her any just cause for attacking you. What had originally begun as an internal affair among Polish Socialists provoked a debate that ended in a thorough-going revision of prevailing opinions in Western European socialism in three areas: the international situation, the situation in Russia, and the situation in Poland.

Rosa Luxemburg: The Polish Question at the International Congress in London (1896)

Then, they barely existed in isolated little groups outside the mainstream of political life in every country; today, they represent the dominant factor in the life of society.

Lenin: The National Question in Our Programme

The more you master it the more you get closer to mastering the Polish language. Notice the structure of the Questions in Polish. In 1827, she had very foolishly and thoughtlessly, against advice, rushed into a conflict with Russia, and had seen herself reduced to make a treaty, not only surrendering important provinces, but giving Russia the advantage of hoisting her flag in the Caspian.
