Secretaries (Video 2005)

A good secretary can not afford such a luxury... Some people even tend to speak about their former bosses, complaining, revealing information sometimes confidential information, and referring to reasons why they left their last job. In this capacity it is essential that you know what needs to be done, and are able to take clear and accurate notes because the role of the secretary is primarily to create an official record of the meeting. After taking meeting minutes, it is important to craft them into a coherent report as soon as possible whilst the information is still fresh in the mind.
