How to Approach the Qur'an

The depth of knowledge is amazing mashAllah. First published in 1988, this collection of essays marks a significant turning point in the scholarly study of tafsir, bringing the discipline a new prominence and stimulating a new generation of scholars to devote their energy to its study.

Approaches to the Qur'an (1/2)

According to him, Prophet saw was already doing poetic sessions of concern regarding the pagan society with his small band of ragtag followers: Waraqa, Ali ra , Khadija ra and Abu Bakr ra. He forwarded the same idea that Quran came into being gradual across different generations and from multiple sources. Its is so amazing to see such scholar at current times who does not speak without backing it up with source and evidence.

How to Approach the Qur'an

They were meant to be heard and recited. In this way, before any type of alterations could have taken place in its verses, they were repeated often, thus reaching a stage that it was impossible to increase, diminish or alter even a single word in this heavenly book.

How to Approach the Qur'an

Abi Talib had an instrumental role in facilitating this codification, as he is also believed to have been the compiler of the first recension text. Muslim and non-Muslim, classical and modernist approaches to the Quranic miracles need to be reconsidered, so as to avoid or reduce misinterpretations.
