Central, Eastern European countries witness booming trade with China

Brussels, 30 December 2020 EU and China reach agreement in principle on investment The EU and China have today concluded in principle the negotiations for a Comprehensive Agreement on Investment CAI. Here too Europe can claim some success with commitments on state owned enterprises SOEs , transparency for subsidies in services, forced technology transfers, standard setting and licensing. The EU side recalled its invitation for President Xi to join an EU-China Leaders' meeting with the participation of the Heads of State and Government of the EU member states to be held in Brussels in 2021.

Understanding China's Belt & Road Initiative: Motivation, framework and assessment

China is also willing to open financial services, real estate and shipping services where the opportunities may be less evident. The reality is that these provisions are better than nothing, and the sustainable development provisions will not encourage or discourage companies from continuing to do business in China.

China's backdoor to Europe

The US considers that in concluding the CAI the EU has ceded leverage to deal with China on a united front and is. Second, Xi urged joint efforts to promote economic recovery, adding the two sides should step up policy coordination and uphold building an open world economy to bring global industrial and supply chains back on track as soon as possible. A deal with the EU on market access is seen by many as a public relations victory for the president, Xi Jinping.
