National Historic Landmark

The National Park Service has designated over 45 sites in Texas as landmarks, scattered across twenty-nine counties. The purpose of these inspections is to analyze the specific condition of the Landmark, identify and prioritize recommended work treatments, and estimate the costs for carrying out this work. Landmarks have been recognized by the Secretary of the Interior as possessing national significance.

Technical Assistance

Please be sure to include your name, mailing address, the historic name of the property, and its location including the state and county. Each NHL represents an outstanding aspect of American history and culture. Often State and local governments have grant and loan programs available for historic preservation.

National Historic Landmarks Program (U.S. National Park Service)

There are numerous professional depositories that provide assistance in tracing your family history. Listen to firsthand accounts of life in the segregated South from the people who lived the experience. Some funding sources prioritize National Historic Landmarks, such as the.

Preservation Programs

Property owners are free to make whatever changes they wish if Federal funding, licensing, or permits are not involved.

List of U.S. National Historic Landmarks by state

. The provides in-depth information about National Historic Landmark vessels and lighthouses. Like their counterparts in and , FPOs often survey, evaluate, and nominate significant historic buildings, sites, structures, districts, and objects to the and the NHL program.

National Historic Landmarks Program (U.S. National Park Service)

Nominators can expect the listing procedure to typically take at least 18 months. If funding permits, information derived from the in-depth inspection may be compiled in a building condition assessment report which may be made available to owners, preservation organizations, and interested public and private groups.

National Historic Landmark

Click on a state to see a list of the National Historic Landmarks in that state. Owners may object to the nomination of the property as a NHL.
