Lover's Gift 45 Collected Poems and Plays of Rabindranath Tagore London: Macmillan, 1936 sangsaar saajaaye tumi aachile ramanee, smaran 18 Variants: 'mend all that' and 'has been neglected' changed to 'mend all' and 'neglect' respectively in the Lover's Gift version. When I awoke, You fled to a lonely place.

Sandhya

Who are You who coloured my mind with coloured powders? How tender He is, and yet, how severe. Because every day we face the worst situations that arise in the workplace. You are the goal of all lives.

Sandhya

With a garland of songs in His hand, He set me afloat on His stream of melody. Sedin amra sabai uposthit, manche je jar jaygay, sabha suru haber ektu agei elen pradhan atithi, mathay bidyut er jhakani anubhab korlamm. .
