Specifically, employers can't refuse to hire or employ; bar or discharge from employment; segregate or separate; or discriminate in compensation or terms, conditions, and privileges of employment. They want the system to be fair. In these countries CEOs and ministers are working together in a three-year time frame on policies that help to further close the economic gender gaps in their countries.

Gender Diversity Training in the Workplace for Employees

Companies like offer increasingly diverse Employee Resource Groups to ensure every employee is taken care of. Black women, in particular, deal with a greater variety of microaggressions and are more likely than other women to have their judgment questioned in their area of expertise and be asked to provide additional evidence of their competence.
