

Letter from J.C. Grant, Esquire, of Montreal - in reply to the Honorable and Venerable John Strachan, D.D.L.L.D. Archdeacon of York.

s.n.] - Grant J C

Description: -

-
Bills, Legislative -- United States.
Canada -- Church history -- 1763-1867.
Clergy reserves (Canada).
Strachan, John, -- 1778-1867. letter from J.C. Grant, Esquire, of Montreal - in reply to the Honorable and Venerable John Strachan, D.D.L.L.D. Archdeacon of York.
-
CIHM/ICMH Microfiche series -- no. 21311 letter from J.C. Grant, Esquire, of Montreal - in reply to the Honorable and Venerable John Strachan, D.D.L.L.D. Archdeacon of York.
Notes: Filmed from a copy of the original publication held by the Library of the Public Archives of Canada. Ottawa : Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions, 1983.
This edition was published in 1983

Filesize: 14.74 MB

Tags: #Search #Results

Full text of history of education in Upper

But, it did not follow, with the several Denominations of the former, and who constituted the majority of the population of the Upper Province, that this could not be done. There is no written record of this in the church books.

Grant J C

The same year he entered upon active practice as an advocate and has since remained a member of the Montreal bar, although his growing powers and capabilities have won him place among the leaders of the profession in the province. He was a man of remarkable personality. Bahnsen PDF with commentary at garynorth.

Full text of history of education in Upper

And be it enacted, that an account in detail of the sums received and expended under the provisions of this Act, shall be rendered to the Governor, Lieu- tenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, annually, in order that the same may be laid before the Legislature, within thirty days after the commencement of each Session.

A letter from J.C. Grant, Esquire, of Montreal [microform] : in reply to the Honorable and Venerable...

Binding is good and the text is clear. I am confident that his deep religious sense of duty was at the bottom of much that we admire in his career—he was utterly honest, not because he believed it to be the best business policy, but because he had faith in the right; he was filled with genial optimism, not from blindness to the facts, but because he knew them. He air de Blacquiére, was far, very far, from intending that such a consideration implied the forcing upon.

Related Books

- Future of natural fibres - papers presented at a Shirley Institute Conference on 29-30 November 1977
- Japanese criminal justice
- Scenarios for success - turning insights into action
- Nyū baiotekunorojī
- Penerapan logika fuzzy dalam pemodelan perkiraan tingkat inflasi di Indonesia - laporan penelitian d